The Halloween season in Houston wouldn't be complete without a trip to the National Museum of Funeral History. This year, the Museum is celebrating everyone's favorite spooky holiday during the full month of October (and into the beginning of November). Families can explore a variety of Halloween happenings – from the Museum's Annual Haunted House to the Annual Halloween Car Show (one day only!). The fun continues November 1-4 with the Day of the Dead/Dia de los Muertos Celebration with fun children's activities.
